Banded Family Ranch

Guided tours start at:
10am • 1pm • 3pm

13010 Twin Pines Road, Sutter Creek

TRAVEL NOTES: Located halfway between Amador City and Fiddletown, the road from both directions is mostly dirt and is very narrow in places (10 mph). Allow plenty of time; it takes about half an hour from both directions. Follow directional markers and instructions for parking. There is one hill to walk up to return to parking after the tour.

This tour stop will showcase 90 acres of grazing animals plus fruits, vegetables & hops produced for Break Even Beermakers & Imperial Hotel.

Amador Flower Farm

from 4:30pm

22001 Shenandoah School Road, Plymouth (@ corner of Shenandoah)

Since 1996, Amador Flower Farm's 11 acres have wowed visitors with demonstration gardens, waterfalls, ponds, picnic area, nursery and over 1200 daylily varieties. We look forward to sharing this wonderful flower-filled outdoor venue for our family-style dinner and fundraising event.
Please feel free to visit the Flower Farm at any time during the day or evening to enjoy their property, before or after the dinner. Thank you, Ken and Jeanne Deaver, for inviting us to your farm!
